Mr. Bliss Gives Some Sage Advice to His Hearers in Gospel Tent.

GIVES CHRIST AS AN EXAMPLE

sks His Hearers to Carefully Pur-use the History of the Son of God in the Washburn Street cemetery. Asks His Hearers to Carefully Pur-Her Young Friends-Other News

Ever since the opening of ithe Moody gospel tent on North Main avenue by E W. Bliss large crowds have congregated under the white canvass. Last evening was no exception to the rule MANUFACTURED AND FOR SALE TO sud every seat was occupied. The with a women's service in the Simpson Methodist Episcopal church where Mr. Bliss delivered an eloquent discourse to the ladies. A movement is now on foot to hold numerous cottage prayer meetings. The initial meeting of this nature was conducted at the home of Mrs. Roberts on North Sumner avenue, where a large number assembled to worship God. The afternoon meeting opened with a song service, which was followed with a prayer. William W. Jones, the choir leader, has made a vast improvement in his class of singers. The evening service opened at 7:30 o'clock with a series of Gospel hymn selections. On the platform were sented selections. On the platform were seated Revs. D. C. Hughes, C. Floyd, O. K. Freeman, Dr. Pearce and Mr. Blies.

The hymn, "I Will Sing a Wondrous Story" and "Jesus Saves," were sung undersleadership of William B. Owen in the absence of William W. Jones. Prayer was offered by Rev. D. K. Freeman in adaptate manner. Freeman in a devout manner, and "A Soldier of the Cross" was sweetly sung by the choir. Mr. Davis, a member of Mr. Moody's quartette when at Chicago, sang in a clear tenor voice the bymn, "There's No Hope for a Sinner Like Me." Tickets for the Sunday evening men's meeting were distributed and the announcement was made by Mr. Bliss that no service would be held this evening, but that the choir would meet for rehearsal. The hymn "I Will Sing of My Redeemer" was then sung. Mr. Davis again sang, Dr. Pearce, of the Elm Park church, offered a prayer, Mr. Bliss read a portion of Matthew xxii. as a text, and during his remarks said:

ABOUT ENTERTAINING EVIL THOUGHTS. Some people get offended when they see Some people get offended when they see their pastor going next door to their home and say they do not care for a man who cannot treat people alike. A few days later you meet that pastor and he freely welcomes you. He says: "How are the people next door to you?" You say with a feeling of great jealousy, "You ought to know, you go there often enough." But hesays, didn't you know that they had two children very sick?" Then you have some hesays, didn't you know that they had two children very sick?" Then you have something to think about. Entertaining evil thoughts about your pastor and never inquired into the welfare of your neighbor. Man is a poor sinner, but God don't send men to hell, he tries to keep you out of hell. The devil comes along and says, "God hates you." "God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son that sinners might be saved."

of Bright street, who died on Thursday.

Will be buried at Forest Hill this afternoon. Funeral service at the residence at 2 p. m.

Councilman Wade Finn and others, who have recently purchased the Tripp property known as the "court house property on North Main avenue, are arranging to plot one she land in hullding lots. A new street will be laid out to connect North Main avenue and Providence road.

that He gave His only begotten Son that sinners might be saved."

If you want something that will make you never entertain a doubt against the Lord, just read the history of Christ upon sarth. "I come to seek and save, He that comes to Me I will in no wise cast out."

These are some thoughts that you should study. When Christ took the vinegar upon the srees he gave up the God, meaning that his mission on earth was well done. Every thing that God had prophesied had been

THE SPIRIT OF GOD. For 1800 years God's spirit has come upon men and women, and influencing them to save others. "For life is the gift of God to every man." It is not enough to have right thoughts, we must have right actions. You may say that I have not learned you anything tonight, but the question is, "Have you done anything? Plate believed that Jesus was the Messiah, Pilate believed that Jesus was the Messiah, but he worked by the pulses of the people. It the people said Barabas, he did so. If they said Jesus, that was all right. He was a politician. He had no back bone. Pilate said, "What shall I do with Jesus?" And they said, "Cracify Him." and he did so. Will put your thoughts into action tonight and when God asks you, will you consent to be His. Come bardships or serrow, happiness or com.

The local veterans will be joined hardships or sorrow, happiness or com-fort, will you consent and say I will live for Jesus come what may. Do this, I be-seech you, tonight. You and I will know some day what it is to be in with Jesus some day what it is to be in with Jesus Christ. He is the coming man. What can I do with Jesus? Only two things. One is, "Reject Him and die." The other is, "Take Him and live."

Weeks come and months go by and we let it go. At last old age is here and it is too late. We die without finding the Savior. People will say, "I don't feel like those Christians say they do." What if you don't. You can if the carnestness is there. I wonder if you are carrying some there. I wonder if you are carrying some darling sin all through your life and give it up at last. Oh, my hearer, do not be deceived by that strong argument of the devil's any longer. Now is the accepted time. Tonight say you will turn your back upon your sins, and God give you grace to do it.

THE CLOSING PRAYER Rev. T. C. Floyd, D. D., pastor of the Simpson Methodist, gave a very carnest prayer, with an appeal to sinners. The meeting was closed with singsng. A half hour meeting was then held and many people were brought to Christ. Prayers were offered by several of the divines present, and the inspiring Gospel hymus were sung.

A LAWN PARTY.

Miss Maud Jones Entertains Her Numerous Friends.

The lawn of Police Officer and Mrs. Thomas Jones on North Sumner avenue, contained a large number of young people yesterday afternoon, the event being a party tendered by their young daughter, Miss Maud, to the Misses Dora and Elith Jenkins, of Danville. The afternoon was spent in a most enjoyable manner under the trees which surround the lawn, and games of various kinds served amusement and diversions for the young people.

At 5 o'clock supper was served by Mrs. Jones.

Among those present were: Maud Jones, Dora and Edith Jenkins, of Danville; Theil Dawkins, Mabel and Alice Mullin, Molly Mohr, Flossie Sproats, Pearl George, of Parsons; Helen Lewis, Edna Stevens, Rose and Winnie Kinerim, and Webster and Howard Leyshon, Amel Konecky. ### DR. KOLB WITHDRAWS HIS NAME

He Was a Candidate for Delegate in the Eleventh Ward, but Retires in the Interest of Harmony-Sunday Exercises at the Young Women's Christian Association - Personals and Shorter Paragraphs.

The Republican primaries in the several districts of the South Side wards this evening will be marked by greater harmony than has prevailed in any fall campaigns in the past, where so many delegates jumped in the field at the start. Two weeks ago in every district no less than six citizens were announced for the nomination for delegate. Within the past few days a change came over the anticipation of a hot fight by the gradual delegation. ual dropping off of the number until the field in each district was left clear to just enough to elect,

On Wednesday the only district that appeared to be billed for a stormy time was the first district of the Eleventh ward. Oil has been poured on the troubled waters by the sacrifice of Dr. A. J. Kolb, who withdrew his name in the interest of harmony.
